

The Literary Criticism Prize 2020

CALL FOR ENTRIES

Entries are hereby invited for The Literary Criticism Prize. The yearly prize is endowed by Nigeria LNG (NLNG) Limited to honour the author of the best work.

To encourage literary criticism, the Advisory Board of The Nigeria Prize for Literature will reward one critic with the sum of N1,000,000.00

Since the aim is to promote Nigerian Literature in the world, the prize will be open to literary critics from all over the world. Special considerations shall be given to critical essays on new writings in Nigerian Literature.

Contestants shall send in three critical essays published in major scholarly journals. Such journals shall have a proven track record of dedication to excellence and must have international circulation.

No critical essay previously submitted for this competition may be considered at a later date, even if major revisions of it have been made. Mere manuscripts will not be considered. Entries not submitted by the deadline and according to stated conditions shall not be considered. Only entries published in the year of the competition or within three years before then shall be considered.

No member of the Advisory Board or Panel of Judges can enter their essay(s) for the literary criticism award in the year they are serving.

SUBMISSION PROCEDURE

All applicants must submit their entries accompanied by an application form obtainable online from the NLNG website. Completed forms must be printed and submitted along with the entries. Failure to meet the stated conditions will lead to disqualification of the entry.

The prize will be awarded for no other reason than excellence.

ANNOUNCEMENT AND PUBLIC PRESENTATION OF WINNER

The winner will be announced and presented in October.

CLOSE OF ENTRY

All entries must be in by March 31, 2020. Late entries will not be entertained.
